Early Recollections of Granddaughter Katie Deeds:

Everyone was welcome at L.E. Carter's home. Sometimes travelers would come through, and we would set the table for more people - Grandma Carter was always in charge of the house.

Sarah Carter believed everything her husband said was gospel. L E always told his wife, she would live 7 years longer than he did. When the time came and she lived past 7 years - She couldn't understand why, because L E told her she wouldn't live but 7 years longer.
